Press release

Grab Sweet Savings at Sopwell House for January to April 2009

Bag yourself a Sweet Deal!

To help businesses and associations ride the current economic storm sweet savings are up for grabs when booking meetings and events at Sopwell House, St Albans, from 1 January to 30 April 2009.

Available for gatherings of fifteen or more people, DDR from £55+ per person and 24 hour from £185 per person. the rates are tremendous value, making budgeting any event sweet and very simple without denting the company bank balance.

“We understand that venues need to be more flexible and creative in terms of pricing during a tough economic battle,” AB Hotels Group Operations Director Charles Morgan said. “Sopwell House is incorporating extra value and sweet incentives to encourage meetings and events at St Albans premier venue with four star service”.

Sopwell House's Hertfordshire location (less than an hour from Central London and within easy access from the motorways) makes it a popular choice for business and conferencing events.

The Hotel offers 18 flexible conference venues, function rooms and open-air space, to cater for an interview for two, to a meeting for 400. Coupled with a Business Centre, complimentary wireless broadband internet, a dedicated Conference Host and a walled garden for team activities, the success of any event is guaranteed.
